Volunteer Behavior Guidelines:

Families and other youth-serving programs place trust in U of I Extension to provide quality leadership and care for participating youth. The opportunity to work with youth is a privileged position of trust that should be held only by those who are willing to demonstrate behaviors that fulfill this trust. For these reasons, the following behavior guidelines are expected of volunteers working in U of I Extension 4-H youth development programs.

- 1. Treat others in a courteous, respectful manner demonstrating behaviors appropriate to a positive role model for youth.
- 2. Obey the laws of the locality, state and nation and U of I and Extension policies and guidelines.
- 3. Make all reasonable effort to assure that 4-H youth programs are accessible to youth without regard to race, color, religion, political beliefs, national or ethnic origin, immigration or citizenship status, sex, gender identity and expression, transgender status, sexual orientation, age, marital or family status, educational level, learning style, pregnancy, physical appearance, body size, and individuals with disabilities.
- Recognize takes or advantage of the programs and report suspected abuse to the authorities.
- 5. Do not participate in or condone neglect or abuse, which happens outside the program to 4-H youth participants and report suspected abuse to authorities.
- 6. Treat animals humanely and teach 4-H youth to provide appropriate animal care.
- 7. Operate motor vehicles (including machines or equipment) in a safe and reliable manner when working with 4-H youth, and only with a valid operator's license and the legally required insurance coverage.
- 8. Do not consume alcohol or illegal substances while responsible for youth in 4-H activities nor allow 4-H youth participants under supervision to do so.
- 9. Use of technology and social media in safe and appropriate ways. See How to Volunteer Screening Process: "Illinois 4-H Guidelines for Use of Social Media" Click the link to read the Guidelines: https://4h.extension.illinois.edu/volunteers/application

I have read, understand and agree to U of I Extension Volunteer Behavior Guidelines.
